

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Erin Hlasney
1-877-619-9885 x706
ehlasney@seacrestcompany.com

SeaCrest's Ashley Bardsley Honored with 2019 ICE NextGen Award during ICE Exchange

CHARLOTTE, N.C., December 18, 2019—SeaCrest Company's Ashley Bardsley was recently honored by the Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE) with the 2019 ICE NextGen Professional Award. The award was presented during the annual ICE Exchange in San Diego, CA, November 18 through 21.

"I'm honored to be selected as a recipient of the ICE Next Gen Professional award," said Ms. Bardsley. "I have the privilege of collaborating with colleagues in the credentialing profession who teach and challenge me each day, and have helped me develop my credentialing career."

The ICE Next Gen Professional Award recognizes individuals who are in the early development of their credentialing career. These individuals demonstrate commitment to developing skills necessary for success in the credentialing profession, a desire to create a career path in credentialing, and a willingness to mentor others within their organization.

-more-

At SeaCrest, Ms. Bardsley supports certifying agencies through project management, accreditation preparation, implementation of quality improvement projects, and policy development. Read more about her via the SeaCrest website.

For more information on Ms. Bardsley or SeaCrest Company, please contact Erin Hlasney.

###

-more-

About SeaCrest Company

SeaCrest Company, founded in 2006, is a strategic partner to organizations seeking certification program accreditation. Leveraging experience gained working with more than 200 programs, SeaCrest conducts a comprehensive evaluation of existing certification programs, recommends corrective actions through strategic counsel, and prepares accreditation applications. SeaCrest also assists organizations regardless of where they are in the credentialing process—from product development, business strategy and quality improvement, and marketing and communications. Based in Charlotte, NC, SeaCrest is a member of the American Board of Nursing Specialties (ABNS) and the Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE). Find us online at www.seacrestcompany.com.